Storm Ciara will bring a spell of very strong winds. Disruption to travel is likely during Sunday

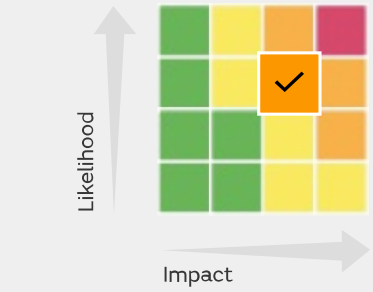
What to expect

- Probably some damage to buildings, such as tiles blown from roofs
- Longer journey times and cancellations likely, as road, rail, air and ferry services may be affected
- Some roads and bridges likely to close
- Injuries and danger to life is likely from large waves and beach material being thrown onto coastal roads, sea fronts and properties
- There is a good chance that power cuts may occur

Further details

Widespread very strong winds will affect the region through much of Sunday. Gusts of 55 to 65 mph are likely widely in inland areas and 70 to 80 mph along the south coast.

Heavy rain will accompany the strong winds leading to very poor driving conditions.



Medium likelihood of medium impacts
